Why We Launched This Program

“What do you need?” and “How can we help?” These are the questions that many parents ask their child’s teacher. We believe that this program will allow parents and the community to choose to enrich the school lives of a classroom of students by supporting teachers through service, communication as well as monetary and “in-kind” donations.

A Grass Roots Effort

If you are as excited about this program as we are, we’d appreciate your support:

- Page 2 explains how to make a monetary contribution.
- Go to www.adoptaclassroom.org to review teacher wish lists and provide “in kind” donations.
- Keep in contact with teachers to identify service opportunities in the classroom.
- Spread the word to your network of family, friends, and business owners.

Each donor receives an email with itemized purchases and description of enrichment goals
