It takes many hands to build a wonderful community and we think we have the best hands around. - The Dewing PAC Board.

HAVE A SAFE AND HAPPY SUMMER!!!

Take a Look on the other side for volunteer openings for next year!

Hurry, There are only a few spots left ➡

Help Wanted

Be A Part of The Dewing Community
Help to Enrich The Lives of Our Students!

Only a Few Positions Left!

Dewing PAC Secretary

The PAC Secretary is responsible for reserving meeting spaces for Dewing PAC events and meetings as well as taking Meeting Minutes and supporting the overall Dewing PAC.

Dewing School Store Coordinator

The School Store is open twice a month during lunch hours to allow students the opportunity to shop on their own and support their school. This person would be responsible for purchasing items to sell at the school store as well as setting up on the designated School Store Days. Volunteers are used on the School Store days to assist the coordinator.

Arts and Enrichment Planner

Throughout the school year the planner arranges for in-school performances related to the curriculum and are age appropriate. These performances include plays, musicals, educational exhibits etc.

Dewing DewGooders Book Buddies and Valentine's Day Project Coordinator

The coordinator would put together after school educational events for the students. The Students would be able to help their community by making books or Valentine's. These activities have been done in the past and guidelines are available to assist the coordinator. New ideas are always welcome!

If you have questions regarding the time commitment or details for any of these volunteer positions, please contact one of the PAC Board Members listed below.
